UPCOMING ASA WORKSHOPS

TED LAWSON - Watercolor Painting by Design: April 20-22, 2017, 9am-4pm. Cost: $295, includes lunch

A studio workshop in watercolor and other water media with emphasis on working with the elements and principles of design and composition, while using conventional collage techniques and powerful digital collage through the use of computer software.

DINO MASSARONI - Painting Refections & Transparency: May 18-20, 2017, 9am-4pm. Cost: $365, includes lunch

Reflections and Transparency are two of the trickiest visual effects to capture in paint. With morning demonstrations and individual guidance, Dino will share methods and tips as to the best way to achieve these effects.

Please email the studio if you would like to become a member of ASA. To pursue ASA's mission of education in art, we welcome individuals from all levels of artistic training and accomplishment who strive to improve their skills.
